Shaun Davies, Co-founder/Vice President + CFO

Shaun brings his financial expertise to the organization as an associate professor of finance at the University of Colorado.

Tory Leggat, Secretary

Tory works at a tech company in Boulder that aims to leverage technology to accelerate personal growth through relationships. Other than her work she is passionate about people and the communities that surround them. She's excited to be a part of the community that can come around children who are grieving and honored to be a part of the Charlie's Guys mission.

Monika Powell, Chief Technology Officer

Monika handles all of the graphics and our Annual Impact Summary Report. She brings over 15 years of experience in consulting, along with a passion for her creativity and technology to the organization.

Allie Bell, Chief Administrative Officer

Allie handles all of the bereaved child care packages. She graduated from the University of Colorado at Boulder with a degree in Speech, Language, and Hearing Science and a minor in Education. She is currently getting her masters in early childhood education. Allie has a passion for children and brings an enormous amount of skill and assistance to the organization.

Sami, Volunteer Intern

Sami handles Charlie's Clubhouse, the pen pal program, and other tasks. She is studying Psychology at Florida International University. She is a former Disney cast member and aspires to become a child life specialist. She is excited to be joining the Charlie's Guys team to help bring happiness to families during challenging times.

Kayla, Volunteer Intern

Kayla handles all of our NICU/PICU gifts and testimonials. She is from Nashville and graduated from Western Kentucky University with a BA in psychology. She is currently working towards her masters degree at East Carolina University with the hopes of becoming a Child Life Specialist. She is beyond excited to be volunteering with such a meaningful organization.

Tori, Volunteer Intern

Tori is from Murfreesboro, TN and graduated from Middle Tennessee State University with a degree in therapeutic recreation. For the last 10 years she has worked as a CTRS serving children who are medically fragile in an outpatient nursing facility. During this time her passion for children who come up against obstacles and hardships has grown. Her passion is to make every child feel loved, seen, and valued so partnering with this organization was a no brainer! She recently began working towards obtaining her Masters degree in Child Studies at Vanderbilt University and hopes to become a Child Life Specialist upon graduation. She is excited to be a part of this organization to learn, serve, and continue her passion!

Maya, Volunteer Intern

Maya is from Illinois studying Human Development and Biology at Howard University in Washington, DC. As a young person she struggled with medical problems and aspires to be a child life specialist to help other children in similar situations. She has a passion for art and loves to draw and paint in her free time. She's so excited to be a part of the work that Charlie's Guys does.

Taylor, Volunteer Intern

Taylor is in charge of contacting referrals and researching gifts/experiences for Charlie's Guys. She is from Greenville, SC and graduated from USC Upstate with a BA in Psychology and a minor in Child Advocacy. She is currently in graduate school at the University of Minnesota studying Applied Child and Adolescent Development, Child Life Track. Taylor hopes to become a Child Life Specialist and is excited to use her experiences here at Charlie's Guys to help better serve her future patients going through similar situations!
